The Blades' role as the Emperor's guards was relegated to the Penitus Oculatus, but the Blades continued to work in secret, watching for a new Dragonborn and guarding the Empire. The Blades were among the first to see the growing threat of the Thalmor and the Aldmeri Dominion.

Blades (Skyrim) | Elder Scrolls | Fandom

You see, Blades of the Old Empire is a companion to Kashina's earlier novel The First Sword. But that also wasn't mentioned in any of the marketing materials or on the book itself, so I jumped in and felt lost. Certain characters weren't introduced particularly well because it was assumed that the reader already knew who they are.
