Lenny Henry In Othello Unabridged

Instead much is made of the lead role being taken by British stand up comedian and Shakespeare novice, Lenny Henry. And there's another plus point to this over the Radio Plays series - these guys have worked this production on stage and so there is a much more realistic and natural feel to the performance.

Lenny Henry in Othello Audible Audiobook - Unabridged

Lenny Henry in Othello (Unabridged) This is not as described - this is a heavily abridged version of the play with about a third of the original text removed. It may be fine as an abridged version of Othello but obviously useless to anyone interested in the full original Shakespearian play.

Lenny Henry In Othello Unabridged

I could hear Lenny Henry's Dudley accent all the way through, recounting his childhood and early professional life; all expressed with his trademark self-deprecating humour. It is also a wonderful historical account of a bygone era of British light entertainment in the 1970's - seaside summer seasons; working men's clubs and TV comedy shows ...

Who Am I, Again? Audible Audiobook - Unabridged

Lenny Henry's performance is pretty solid - let's face it, from 0 to Othello in one step is a big, big ask - and he successfully casts off much of the baggage from his iconic comedy background. He chooses quite an exotic Othello, which I think is a good choice, amongst the pronounced Yorkshire/Lancashire accents of the rest of the cast.

Lenny Henry in Othello (Audiobook) by William Shakespeare ...

Lenny Henry has, apparently, spent most of his career doing comedy. He gives an impressive performance here as Othello: brooding, demanding, bellowing: a man of deep love and honor, a man barely contained by the limits of the play. I wasn't familiar with him or the other members of the cast, but they are all wonderful.
