to be taught, the NSW Department of Education has used this style since the late 1980s (Writing K-12, NSW DET, 1987). The NSW Foundation Style is based on research related to children's motor skill develop-ment. The Foundation Style emphasises in the early years the gross motor movement of left to right direction across the page and then in later years focuses on finer fluent move-ments. The movements involved in Foundation Style are ergonomically efficient for both
